

Treating Customers Fairly Statement – November 2014 Update

Unicom is a responsible company and recognises all legislative and regulatory compliance issues, in conjunction with its internal compliance controls. You can request a copy of this statement, which will be provided free of charge, by contacting our customer service team on 0161 946 4444. A copy of this statement has been published on our website at <http://switchingon.com/treating-customers-fairly>.

In accordance with the introduction of Ofgem's Standards of Conduct, we have produced this statement which reaffirms our commitment to treating you, our customer, fairly. The Standards of Conduct refer to our energy Micro Business Customers.

What we expect

Unicom will act in a fair, honest, transparent, appropriate and professional manner at all times.

We ensure that all customers entering into an agreement with Unicom for their energy supply fully understand the nature of the agreement, and intend to proceed with the transfer. We do not tolerate any form of mis-selling or misrepresentation from anyone representing the company.

We ensure that we provide our customers with protection from harmful conduct arising from irresponsible sales and marketing activity and we also ensure good practice and responsible selling.

Unicom believes that the customer experience is of utmost importance and we expect our staff:

- To be courteous and professional at all times
- To be able to explain the products and services provided by Unicom
- To be aware of and comply with Ofgem's Standards of Conduct
- Not to misrepresent any services offered by Unicom or other service providers

We are happy to listen to any feedback which you can provide to us, and welcome any comments which you wish to make.

Unicom conducts regular training sessions with our sales staff to reaffirm the commitment which we have made to our customers. These training sessions allow our sales staff to be provided with the most up to date knowledge to provide the customer with the information which they need to make the right decision.

What we will provide to you

We will confirm the details of the energy contract agreed in writing to you, whether the agreement is concluded verbally or in writing. Our contracts are set out in such a format which provides the customer with an overview of the services being supplied under the contract and general terms of supply and are complete, accurate and not misleading. Key features of the contract are given prominence. The below features appear clearly on the contracts:

- Contact details for the company, including our postal address, telephone and facsimile numbers, email address and website address
- Minimum period of supply
- Terms and conditions of supply
- Features of service
- Payment terms

- Customer service opening hours

We will also confirm in writing the start date of your energy supply. All communication is written in plain and intelligible language.

We have made it easy for you to contact us

If you have a question or concern, our dedicated customer service team are here to listen and help you, they are available between 9am and 6pm, Monday to Friday. We don't use automated answering services and our customer service centre is UK based. We will answer your call within 6 seconds. You can contact us by:
